Event News Release

Street Party with Chix 4 a Cause

WEST BEND, WI – On Saturday, August 15th 2009, the Street Party with Chix 4 a Cause will be held in West Bend on Main Street between Foz's and M&I Bank between 2 and 11 pm. The street will be blocked off to allow room for the event.

Three bands – Dianna Jones, Albatross, Illusion, and the headliner from Milwaukee, Super Fly - will be featured along with food and beverage vendors and raffle opportunities. Admission will be $10 at the gate.

The event was the brain child of John Fasciano who has been a strong supporter of Chix and its cause. Curt Allison is spearheading the event planning along with the Chix board members.

Chix 4 a Cause LTD is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that helps individuals in need fight cancer by granting qualified individuals within Southeastern Wisconsin a Gift of Love. These gifts are granted to bring some happiness and reduce stress for the patient and their families. Past gifts included family weekend outings, utility assistance, gift cards, to name a few.
